Your Voice Counts: Become an ALS Advocate

An ALS Association Advocate is someone who is passionate about drawing awareness to and resources for people living with ALS. An ALS Association Advocate is someone who is willing step outside of their comfort zone to effect real change in the way our government responds to the needs of the ALS community. As an ALS Association Advocate, you can help change the laws and policies that affect thousands of people with ALS and their families by reducing the barriers to research, accelerating drug development and facilitating access to services. Advocacy and awareness are essential to advancing the search for a cure for ALS!

It’s easy!

5 minutes. That’s all it will take to learn about the issues impacting the ALS community and take action to help advance the search for a cure and improve the lives of people living with ALS today. Congress and our elected officials can have a tremendous impact on the ALS community, so it’s important that those leaders hear our message. We need your help - in just 300 seconds, you can make a difference!

Sign up to be an ALS Advocate
The ALS Association will send you important updates and action alerts on the latest ALS advocacy issues.

http://www.alsa.org/advocacy

Help us continue to fight for a treatment and cure for ALS with just a few clicks; it’s that easy!

Tweets by @ALSPublicPolicy

"I love raising awareness of ALS by sharing the story of my husband’s 30-year journey with ALS and advocating for laws that benefit people with ALS and their families." Cheryl Tsieprati (Left), Advocacy Day 2016 with Scott Jordan, VP of New Product Planning at Cytokinetics and Golden West Chapter VP Care Services, Pamela Jacobson.